

Pond borders

My brother works at the garden center where he designs paths to around the edges of ponds. He wants to work out how to quickly estimate the number of paving stones to go around any size of pond. Can you help him to do this?

You can present your work as interesting diagrams and drawings.

See if you could work out a formula for him to use.

What other ponds and borders could you investigate?