

Handshakes.

My sister invited me to her party last Saturday. There were more people there than I expected. I had to shake hands with them all! There were 12 people. How many handshakes was that?

We all shook hands with each other. How many handshakes was that!

Is there a pattern depending on how many people are at the party?

Can you record your work in an interesting way and explain it to someone else?